Dear Mr. Klugsberger,

I would like to thank you for the fair-price proposal that you offered us yesterday.

However, we checked the contract, and, on contrary of what you told us, there is no mention of "parkett-dieles". In that case, we think that, according to the contract, all the expenses related to the parquet must be payed by the seller.

I attach the relevant page of our contract.

Best Regards,
Marco Benelli
